

CANDIDATE NO PHOTO ID FORM

Private Candidate Identification

When should this form be used?

This form must be completed for a private candidate who does not have an accepted, current form of photographic identification. It forms part of North West Education Hub's candidate identity verification process.

Who can verify your identity?

The form must be completed by an independent adult who knows you personally and can confirm your identity. The verifier should be a person of professional standing, for example:

- Headteacher, teacher or senior member of an educational institution
- Doctor or other registered healthcare professional
- Magistrate
- Solicitor or other regulated legal professional
- Bank manager
- Employer or senior manager

Photograph requirement

Please provide a recent passport-style colour photograph. The verifier must confirm that the photograph is a true likeness of you and sign the reverse of the photograph. If an official stamp is available, it may also be applied.
